GREAT LAKES
CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Where Great Music Comes to Play

Major support provided by:  Corewell Health

WELCOME TO THE 30TH ANNUAL GREAT LAKES CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL!

The 30th season of the Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival comes at a time of enormous change. As life begins to resume after the privations of the pandemic, I feel a sense of renewed energy and optimism.

On a more personal level, I am coming to terms with the fast-approaching final concerts of the Emerson String Quartet, the extraordinary ensemble with whom I have been privileged to play since 2013. Thinking about this transitional time led me to the focus of this year's festival. This season, Turning Points will be our festival's theme. The Emerson String Quartet will perform three concerts of the group's most essential repertoire, and throughout the rest of the festival, we will hear pivotal works by composers who have all influenced the course of classical music.

Featuring revolutionary creators, pieces and performers, the 2023 Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival will celebrate the rich story of chamber music, while looking forward with excitement to the future of this glorious art form.

ABOUT THE COVER

Senghor Reid explores the interactions between the human body and the environment, creating visual representations of dreams, memories and traces of human contact with nature. Reid earned a BFA from the University of Michigan; a Masters of Teaching in Art Education from Wayne State University and attended the internationally recognized Marathon Program at the New York Studio School of Drawing, Painting and Sculpture.

He is currently an Artist-in-Residence at the Cranbrook Schools and is a National Board Certified Visual Arts Educator. He has received many awards including the Kresge Foundation's Kresge Arts in Detroit Visual Artist Fellowship prize and the prestigious Governor's Award for Emerging Artist (Michigan). Reid's work has been exhibited in the U.S. and abroad in galleries and museums including the Museum of Contemporary Art in Detroit.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT EVENTS

The Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival continues to engage with our local community through enriching programs this June. We look forward to collaborating with our partners to impact community members throughout the region:

- The Shouse ensembles will present a workshop to students in the Wayne State University School of Medicine. In partnership with WSU faculty, the musicians perform and demonstrate how they communicate nonverbally. The goal is to create an opportunity for medical students to observe and learn lessons in non-verbal communication, an "art-form" in which chamber musicians must excel to survive. This activity is supported by the Charles H. Gershenson Trust.
- The Shouse Institute will host a workshop for Accent Pontiac students, helping them realize their own compositions and interpret each other's works. Accent Pontiac focuses on strengthening Pontiac's youth and community through equitable access to intensive and consistent music-making. This activity is supported by the Phillip and Elizabeth Filmer Memorial Charitable Trust.

GIVING

As we look toward the future of the Festival, it is our strong base of supporters that allows us to take on bigger and more ambitious projects. Your support of the Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival touches all aspects of the Festival—from the quality of our artists and the inventiveness of our programming to the success of our Shouse Institute. There are many ways you can support the Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival. Contact Jocelyn Zelasko at jocelyn@art-ops.org to create a unique giving package.
